ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Have you participated in any leadership-specific training in the past? If so, please describe.

Participation in the CAHF Leadership Academy requires a commitment of time and resources. Participants of this 2-year program are required to attend an initial two-day leadership retreat; participate in 12 hours of additional practical coursework on leadership offered at CAHF statewide meetings or through other organizations; participate in networking gatherings with other Academy participants at least twice per year; design and complete an individual project which demonstrates leadership skills; integrate what they've learned regarding leadership, culture change and end-of-life decision-making into their facility or company and commit to at least six hours per month of independent study. In addition, all participants will be required to conduct staff and consumer satisfaction surveys and share the data with CAHF.

Do you anticipate being able to commit the necessary time and resources?

Do you anticipate having the support of your employer to participate in this program?

What do you consider to be the most important characteristics of a leader in long-term care?

How do you practice these leadership characteristics in your work or in the community?

What is your vision for long-term care?

How do you see yourself fitting into the vision you have described above?

What do you think is the most urgent issue facing long-term care today?

Give an example of one or two times you have taken a leadership role in implementing a new idea or program.

Please describe an individual who in your opinion exemplifies leadership. Briefly describe the leadership characteristics of this individual.

What do you hope to gain from participation in the LTC Leadership Academy?
