HYATT RENOVATION

The Hyatt Regency Sacramento has just put the finishing touches on a $4 million renovation to the lobby and hotel function space. This renovation complements the $15 million guestroom renovation completed in 2009.

Stately elegance and modern sophistication are the design inspiration for the project. The new renovated space features a contemporary design and the addition of a Starbucks, located outside the hotel on the corner of 12th and K streets.

CAPITOL FACTS

A large statuary group titled Columbus' Last Appeal to Queen Isabella, has occupied a prominent position at the center of the first floor Rotunda since 1883 when Darius Ogden Mills gifted it to the State of California.

In his studio near Florence, Italy, Larkin Goldsmith Meade, an American artist, carved the Carrara marble statue which was originally commissioned by Legrand Lockwood for his Norwalk, Connecticut mansion. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Lockwood sold the sculpture to Mills for $30,000.

Not all of California's citizens agree with Mills that a statue of Columbus is appropriate for the Rotunda of California's Capitol. Before the restoration in the 1970s, many groups suggested that the Legislature relocate the statue and replace it with another statue of an important Californian. After all, Columbus himself never made it to within a couple of thousand miles of California. Despite such criticism, the statue remains in the Capitol Rotunda.
